

Course 4B Administrator Navigation

Document #C4B.2

➤ Agenda

This course will cover the navigation of the PDE Educator Dashboard and Early Warning System from the perspective of a district or building administrator:

- Review steps that enable an administrator to access the application
- Review navigation in the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) Educator Dashboard and Early Warning System
- Review the indicators and metrics available to Administrators in the PDE Educator Dashboard and Early Warning System

Course Pre-Requisites

Participants must have:

- An account to the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) Portal
- An account to the Pennsylvania Educator Dashboard
- An active account for the Standards Aligned Systems training platform (<http://www.pdesas.org/>)

Participants must have completed:

- Course 3: Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) for the LEA

Course Learning Objectives

Participants will be able to:

- Login in as a building administrator to the PDE Educator Dashboard
- Successfully navigate through the PDE Educator Dashboard for Administrators: School and Student Information, Academic Information, Early Warning System, and Intervention Catalog
- Describe the purpose of each of the PDE Educator Dashboards for administrators
- List 2 examples of types of indicators available on each of the PDE Educator Dashboard for administrators

➤ Security/Roles: Purpose

Security/Roles

- The Educator Dashboard and Early Warning System have security restrictions to control the level of access for each school and district staff member.
- Educators have access only to students with whom they have a direct instructional Interest
  - Teachers have access to data on his/her students only
  - Principals have access to data on students enrolled at his/her school only

➤ Administrator Dashboard Layout

Dashboard Layout: Header

- A header is displayed at the top of each dashboard screen.
- Across the top is displayed the name of the dashboard being displayed and links to Export All, Print, access the support page, or log out.
- Notice the links back to the home page for this user, a link to the district level data and a link to the school level data (role driven)

Dashboard Layout: Legend

The screenshot displays a dashboard legend with the following elements:

- Navigation: "<< Page 1 of 3 >>|"
- Page Controls: "Rows per page: 10 20 50 100" and "Total rows: 55"
- Category Indicators (top row):

  - Dropout Risk: Red flag icon
  - Intervention Assigned: Green circle
  - Intervention Not Assigned: Red circle

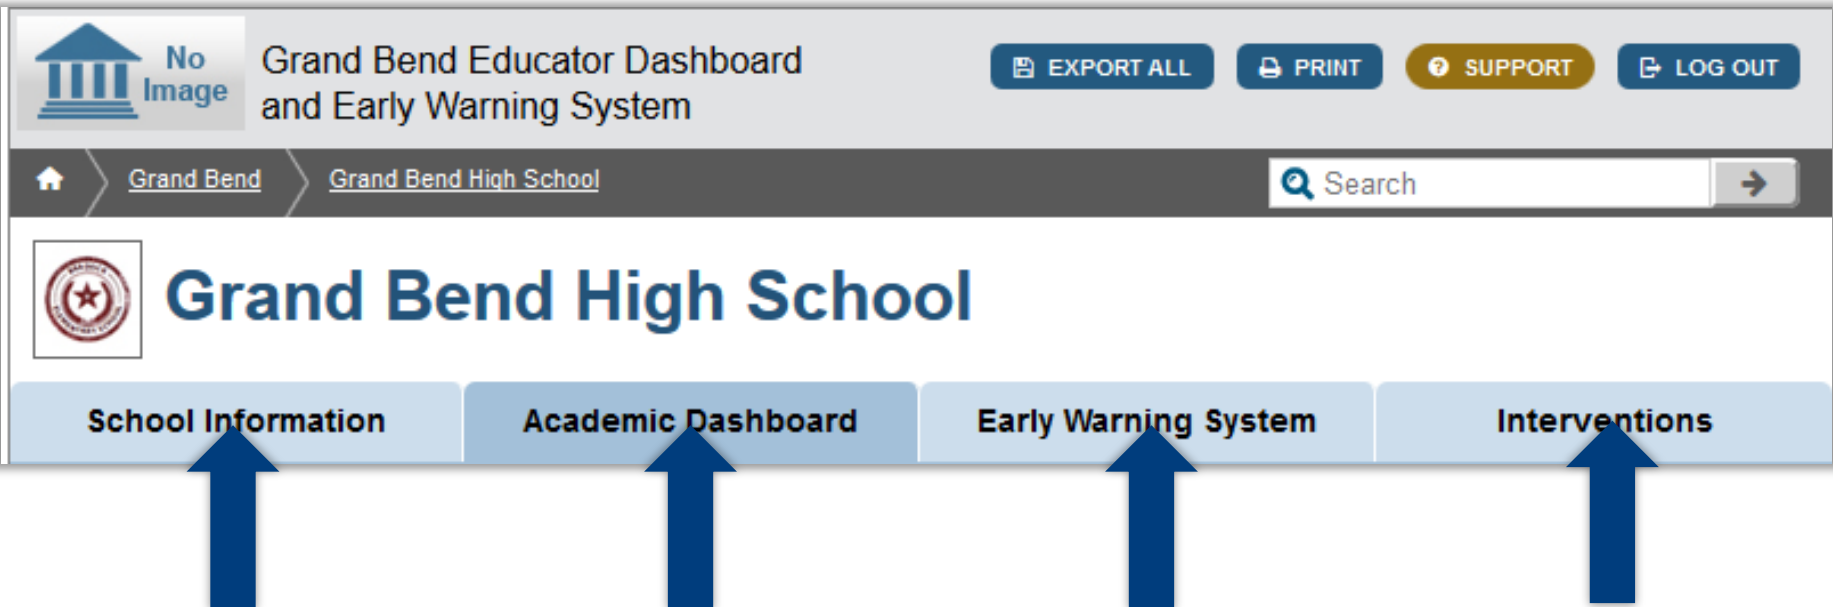

- At the bottom of each dashboard screen is a legend
- The different indicators used throughout the dashboards are defined in the legend

➤ School Level and Student Level Dashboards

- School Administrators can view both school level aggregate data and individual student data for all students on the school's roster
- Many of the metric categories are the same between school level and student level dashboards
- The difference is in the granularity of the data

➤ School Information

> School Level Tabs

- School information includes administration, accountability and demographics for this school
- Other tabs available are the Academic Dashboard, containing academic related metrics for this school, the Early Warning System, and Interventions

The screenshot shows the top section of a web application. At the top left, there is a red flag icon, a green circle with the number '3', and a small profile picture of a woman. To the right of the profile picture is the name 'Tara D. Abbott' in a large, bold, blue font. Further right, in a smaller blue font, is 'S. Preston's Homeroom'. Below the name, there is a navigation bar with five tabs: 'Student Information', 'Academic Dashboard', 'Early Warning System', 'Intervention Catalog', and 'Transcript'. The 'Early Warning System' tab is currently selected and highlighted. Below the tabs, there is a section titled 'Early Warning System' with a link that says 'Jump to select category: Dropout Early Warning System'. Four large blue arrows point upwards from the bottom of the page towards the 'Early Warning System' tab and the link below it.

- Clicking on a student name on the Staff Homepage displays individual student profile information about the chosen student
- The Early Warning System tab is the default tab for Student Profile
